THE WASHINGTON BEE.

VOL. XV. WASHINGTON, D. C., SATURDA OCTOBER 10. 1896. No. 19.

ARTHUR E. BROWN, ESQ.

ARTHUR E. BROWN, ESQ.

SUFFRAGE AGITATOR,

Mr Arthur E. Brown, a young man who was born in this city, is making a brilliant fight for suffrage. No young man deserves more credit than he for the fight he is making in connection with Dr. Rayburn and others for the restoration of the right of suffrage. THE BEE will say more about him next week.

THEY SAY.

The boys are still waiting.

They want to know where "they are at."

They will know definitely after the election.

Some people are hard to convince.

"To convince a fool against his will, he is of the same opinion still."

It is well some times to know your friends.

Some people are never satisfied.

Some people never know when they are doing well.

We never see our mistakes until it is too late.

Always let a quarrelsome woman have her way.

It is best not to grieve after spilt milk.

When you know you have done the best you can, let your conscience be at ease.

If you do 99 things and fail to do the hundredth, don't be surprised at what follows.

THE BEE is the leading paper in the country.

It predicted that no Afro-American would be in this canvas and it has turned out so.

THE BEE sounded the key note and was not surprised at the result of the echo.

Phil Dickson is a wandering Jew.

He is now with Leob and Hirsh.

Phil knows a good thing when he sees it.

The more you do for some people the less thanks you get.

Always take things easy and no one can disturb your rest.

If you want a live paper read THE BEE.

Some men play hot and cold.

Never leave your old friends for new ones.

You may need them some day.

When some people are doing well they don't know it.

The Francis Sanitarium contains some of the best trained nurses in this country.

Public Printer Benedict will do the right thing towards the colored people.

Some politicians are on the anxious seat.

Ex-Gov. Pinchback is a fine looking man.

The politicians are waiting for the procession to pass.

If Bryan is elected after he has had such a struggle he deserves it.

Dr. Riley will be recorder of deeds if Bryan is elected.

If McKinley is elected it is doubtful who will be appointed.

This is a campaign of doubts.

The colored politician is still anxious to serve the party.

Chairman Hanna remarked that this was a bad year for bosses.

Platt side t think so.

Platt will come out ahead no matter who is elected.

He is not so easily turned down.

It is well to knock the conceit out of people some times.

Is it not about time for Astwood to change his politics?

He will never be appointed under McKinley.

He will have things so hot behind him, that he will think a cyclone struck him.

It is not the man who has made the greatest noise, that will be one of the chosen pets.

Let us organize an Afro-American league.

Be up and doing is the watchword of the hour.

The co'ored politicians are making apoligies.

They all think like THE BEE, but, the official tit confronts them.

Hon. Geo. Washington Murray is not heard from these days.

The democratic managers could never fool Clarkson, Quay and others

Chairman Mark Hanna may know how to run his iron works, but, politics and politicians are made of harder stuff

We sympathize with the colored politicians who have thoughts and are afraid to express them.

It is easier to withhold your thoughts some times than it is to obtain an office

Mrs Mary C. Terrell, who is a school trustee, was opposed to putting day teachers in the night school. She gave the graduates a chance. THE BEE admires your nerve, Mrs. Terrell.

There is honesty in politics, certainly there is honor among thieves.

Is it possible that the color line is drawn by the republican party in this campaign?

The colored republicans in the South were an important factor, especially in Georgia. Pledger, Lyons, Devaux and others supported the democratic ticket.

The colored politician is beginning to realize his position.

Every pot house politician has received a letter from the national committee requesting him to hold himself in readiness The colored brethren grins and remarks that he has been sent for by Hanna.

Ex Senator B. K. Bruce, THE BEE will admit was one of the first representative men to declare for Major McKinley, and one of the first to be falsely accused of being dissatisfied with the management of the republican campaign.

Cleveland Cash Astwood who wrote an open letter to Mr. Bruce, is no doubt debating with himself whether to change to Bryan. As an acrobat Cash is the greatest in the political arena.

Col. Geo. Truesdell, one of the Commissioners of the District, has an opinion of his own. He has made more colored appointments than any other republican Commisoner There is more colored police officers under him than they have been since the days of Major Richards. Mr. Montague a high-toned colored gentleman. Mr, Truesdell is entitled to a promotion. He is one of the most efficient men you have, All we ask is a show.

LET FORTUNE LEAD.

We favor the immediate organization of the Afro-American League in every town, city and state, and T. Thomas Fortune, editor of the New York Age, at the head. Fortune is honest. He has not that mean and vindictive spirit that is found in some Afro-American representatives. Who will start the first organization? Let Fortune lead.

BRAVE JOHN MITCHEL.

At last the honest, the brave and noble, John Mitchel, Jr., of the Richmond Planet, has saved the honor and integrity of the proud state of Virginia, and the mother of Presidents. All the lives of the innocent colored alleged murderers have been saved, except the man who really participated in the crime. All honor to honest John Mitchel, Jr., and that distinguished Governor O'Farrell, who protected these innocent people against lynch law. Editor Mitchel deserves a public demonstration by the people of Virginia and Gov. O'Farrell is entitled to resolutions of thanks.

Let such patriotic women as Mesdames Jones, Leftwich start the movement. THE BEE will be with you. Noble deeds by noble men should be appreciated

Let a woman have her way when she is dissatisfied.

It is well some times to hold your temper.

Always train your children to do right.

It is just as easy to do right as it is to do wrong

Both branches of the police court should have new judges.

Life tenure of office ought to be abolished.

THE BEE is no man or party's slave.

Take the mask from over your eyes.

The mask keeps you from the light.

We wonder if the politician has been called yet.

Organize Afro-American leagues in every city and state in the Union.

Now is the time to strike for freedom.

After the election you will hear them say, "I told you so."

The republicans are frightened and the democrats are scared

Will some one have the kindness to inform THE BEE what the two side shows have done?

If any one can point out one vote they have influenced THE BEE will vote in New York 500 times for McKinley.

There is a man going about town showing his teeth.

Never take your eyes off of him.

Never worry after spilt milk.

Do the best you can and say nothing about it.

Hillsdale Happenings.

The Forget-me-not Club composed of small girls and boys gave an exhibition and concert last Tuesday evening at Bethlehem Baptist church. The work of the little ones was praise worthy in the extreme, and Mrs. F E Harrod deserves much credit for their careful training. The affair was a success financially as otherwise.

The twenty-first anniversary of Bethlehem will be celebrated by a week's meeting beginning next Sunday. Each member is expected to bring three cents for every year of the age of the church. The following is the official program: Sunday, October 11, a m., Rev. J. Matthews; 3 p. m., Rev. Robert Johnson; 8 p. m communion, Rev S. J. R. Nelson; Monday, Rev. W. Jackson; Tuesday, Rev. A. H. Catlett; Wednesday, Rev. J. I. Loving; Thursday, Rev. J B. Washington; Friday, Rev. R. V. Peyton; Committee—Rev. J. Matthews, Supt. C. W. Davis, Annie Tabbs, organist, Rev. L. Harrod, Bro J. Sayles. Prof. S. G. Brown read his poem, entitled "Give the young men a chance." It made quite a hit and was rapturously applauded. His with the vocal numbers by Messrs Young, Misses Ella Green, A Van Buren, S. Young and others was quite as enjoyable as the work of the Forget-me-nots.

Women's day at Rev. J. B Washington's church last Sabbath was celebrated in high style. Although called Ladies' Day, every paper prepared was by a gentleman. Mr. A Brown and Mr. George Graham read carefully prepared articles. Mr. S. G. Brown made a few remarks and read a poem the first stanza of which reads

Look abroad o'er God's creation,
What will be its consummation?
Study the plans of His salvation,
Freely offered to mankind.

The collection was a generous one and in a neat speech the lady presiding turned it over to the pastor Rev. Washington.

Miss Ella Green has been transfered from the Hamilton Road school to Hillsdale. The people are rejoicing while Good Hope mourns the loss of a fine lady and excellent teacher.

It is a noticeable fact in Hillsdale lately that young persons of ability are invited to read or sing or play at a gathering and after accepting the invitations and having their names printed on programs fail to appear thus disappointing their friends and embarrassing the managers of the affairs.

This has been brought into prominence on three recent occasions at Campbells on Woman's day where the lady most expected was absent at Hillsdale Station, where two ladies were not found, both having accepted, and at Mrs. Harrod's concert at Bethlehem, where several failed to appear.

Too much praise can not be given to Miss Dora Lee on her first public appearance as organist. Let her persevere and fame is assured

The three Buzzs children carried off the palm where all were excellent.

Wednesday evening Miss A. Van Buren and troupe appeared at Allen A. M. E. church in a sketch called "The Cotton Pickers." Something on the same order was presented last week at Rev. Washington's church. It was a good performance of the kind, now happily but seldom seen.

THE GREATER WAYLAND.

SHILOH BAPTIST CHURCH CROWDED.

REVS. TAYLOR, LEE, CREDIT AND OTHERS MAKE GOOD SPEECHES.

The well advertised mass meeting of the District Baptists took place in the main auditorium of Shiloh Baptist church on last Tuesday. The church was crowded with a fine audience.

Seated in the pulpit were: Dr. J. M. P. King, Dr. T J. Morgan, Revs. J. C. Dent, Geo. W Lee, J. A. Taylor, J. H. Waring, W. A. Credit and others.

The exercises were opened with an organ solo by Miss Jeannette Taylor, daughter of Rev. Taylor, followed with a sweet vocal rendition by the choir. After which Rev. Taylor introduced Rev. W. A. Credit, who offered an eloquent and impressive prayer.

Rev. Taylor, chairman of the meeting then addressed the vast audience in a very impressive and earnest manner. He said the purpose of the meeting and the question to be considered was the arousing of public sentiment in favor of Wayland Seminary, and to promote the cause of the institution that has been with the Baptists in life.

He claimed that the institution had graduated some of the best men and women of the race, and it had destroyed ignorance, At the close of the last school year many of the pastors had met in conference in which the utmost freedom was manifested and many valuable suggestions were made and valuable plans suggested to advance the institution. Officers of the Home Mission Society were invited to be present and give their aid and encouragement

OUR YOUNG MEN

And girls who graduate from the public schools, have to find places in other schools and colleges, when with a little effort on the part of the Baptists, they could have a college of their own. He predicts a bright future for Greater Wayland and the Baptists. He assured his people that the Home Mission had the money and would spend it in the interest of the colored Baptists. He also applauded the fact that Rev. W. A. Credit had been appointed as one of the professors in Wayland Seminary. This announcement was loudly applauded. Rev. Taylor then paid a handsome tribute to this polished gentleman, and one of the best orators of the race

He concluded by informing the audience that the next meeeting would be held in Alexandria, Va.

Rev. W. H. Brooks was called for, who was the next speaker on the program, but that gentlemsn did not report.

Rev. Geo. W. Lee, the nestor of the Baptist denomination was the next speaker. He gave some practical talk as he always does which never fails to electrify his audiences.

He commenced by saying that he had the better part of the program. He said if the Baptists took the interest they have manifested by clapping their hands and beating their feet, Wayland Seminary was theirs. He had no set speech, as he thought the president, Rev. Taylor would present the objects of the meeting The doors of Wayland are open, provided your pocket books are opened. Two things he said are about to swallow up this age, to wit: Education and religion. What this age needs is an educated Christianity, and what we want is an educated religion.

The Baptists cannot afford to let the world go without letting the world know its principles. The position which the Baptists occupy involves responsibility. The reason young men and women stray from the Baptist, is, it is a church of ignorance. All a man wants to do is to do his duty. Wayland was first established to elevate the colored people We want a higher education. It has been said that a higher education was not needed Gen. Fitz Hugh Lee said that a high education ruined the Negroes. All that any man wants is that the creature with whom he walks should be his equal. We are old enough to see our needs and we must shoulder our responsibilities. The churches are supported by the washer women and chambermaids. Those in the higher walks of life always have something else to do with their money. When we ask for money from the high class, they tell us they have a promissory note to pay. We expect an independence in the future, better than the one in the past.

"To whom do you refer," said Rev. Taylor, "to the preachers?"

Rev. Lee, "Yes the preachers." [Laughter and applause]

Rev. J. C. Dent was the next speaker. His remarks were short and to the point.

Dr. Morgan followed with a fine tribute to the colored soldiers, but assured the people that the Home Mission society had no money and was in debt.

Rev. Credit, the eloquent and classic divine of the Berean Baptist church, who is always pointed and eloquent in his utterances, delivered the best speech of the evening. His words were choice and his eloquence unlimited. He carried the people before him.

Mr. H. E. Baker offered a set of resolutions which were adopted. After which a handsome collection was raised.

The music by the choir, with Miss Taylor as organist was excellent.

A BUSINESS WOMAN.

Mrs. Mary E Harnedy, the affable wife of Mr Wm. Harnedy, at 3288 M street, West Washington, is one of the best known business woman in this city. Mrs. Harnedy, prior to her marriage, was a teacher in the Trickle School, Georgetown, and it is said that she was one of the prettiest lady teachers in that section of the city.

Mr. Harnedy, who is a popular Republican, and the successful suitor of this sweet lady, was the lucky man. Mrs Harnedy is given the credit of saying that it was her independent spirit that won the heart of Willie.

The Harnedy house is one of the best in West Washington, and it is the resort of the best men. When you go to West Washington call and see Mr Harnedy.

LITERARY AT ST. LUKE.

The Men's Guild, the literary department of St. Luke's P E. church, will open its series of public meetings next Thursday evening at 8 o clock in the Parish Hall, corner Fifteenth and Madison streets. The program is varied and interesting, embracing an address by Rev. O W. Waller, the rector on "The Guild Idea;" a reading by the talented elocutionist, Miss Sara E. Saunders; a solo by Prof. J. Henry Lewis; an instrumental duet by Misses ollie Bush and Julia Alston, and selections by a quartet from St. Luke's choir, under direction of Mr R W. Thompkins. Seats are free and a cordial invitation is extended to the public by the church and Guild officials.

OUR ARTIST.

CROWDS GO TO HEAR HIM.

One of the largest crowds ever witnessed was assembled at the Vermont Avenue Baptist church on last Sabbath afternoon to hear Prof W C. O. Jacques, the colored artist, who has opened a studio at 2358 Sixth street northwest. Everybody was pleased and the people remarked that THE BEE certainly did speak the truth when it said Prof. Jacques was a great talker.

Sunday evening he will be at Shiloh L, between Sixteen and Seventeen; Monday at Rev Geo. W Lee's church, Vermont avenue northwest, and Wednesday night he will be at the Third Baptist church Rev. W. Bishop Johnson, pastor.

Don't fail to hear him. He will make and give away 500 crayon portraits.

OUR DINNER IN BALTIMORE.

THE COLORED VOTE DIVIDED.

Baltimore, Md., October 4, 1896.—In company with Dr. C. Carroll Stewart, the Editor, Mr. W. Calvin Chase, took a trip to Baltimore, Md. today and repaired to the church of Rev. Harvy Johnson. That gentleman was in bad humor, having a grievance against certain members of his flock who had subscribed sums of money to the church, but, did not show up, which caused Rev. Johnson to use the vigorous term from his pulpit that they were all "liars." Several got up and walked out of church.

We then left for the Sharp Street Baptist church where we heard an excellent sermon by our old friend, Dr. Hayes. It was communion day, but, as it was not policy to commune with Dr. Hayes, we repaired to the residence of Mr. T. H. and Mrs. G. A. Rice on Rock street, to which place an excellent dinner awaited us The host and hostess are two excellent citizens, who have several amiable daughters and sons. The young ladies are belles and highly musically inclined. We

THE WILSON SCHOOL.

The appointment of Mr F J. Cardoza, Jr., to the principalship of the Wilson school, seems to give general satisfaction. When it became known that the authorities had decided upon a male principal, they were besieged by a small army of applicants and their friends who brought every influence to bear in favor of the various candidates. Notwithstanding this importunity the choice was guided by merit alone and after due consideration, Mr. Cardoza received the appointment. He has set himself at once to the task of improving the condition of the school There is no doubt of his ultimate success and it is hoped and believed that at the close of the year, this will be one of the model schools of the District. The night school at this building opened with about 60 attendants, and the anticipated increase will necessitate the employment of one or more assistants.

The 19th street Baptist church elected the following as trustees for the ensuing year: E. W. Brown, Wm. T. Naylor, E. P. Brown, S. Archer, Dr. Stevens, J. R. Brown, A. T. Lewis, L. H. Peterson and Alfred Churchwell. Subsequently the board met and elected the following officers: E. W. Brown, chairman; A. T. Lewis, vice chairman; L. H. Peterson, secretary; J. R. Brown, ass't secretary; Wm. T. Naylor, treasurer; Alfred Churchwell, ass't treasurer, and E. P. Brown, building inspector.

OUR WOMEN.

Mrs. E. V. C. Williams, Editor.

Miss Marie Jones, one of Washington's finest vocalists and pianists, has come to assist at a missionary teacher in the Ferguson-Williams College, of Abbeville, S. C, She is greatly pleased with the work and her surroundings, and the people like her. We hope that many more will leave Washington and go out among the people as this young girl has done. The harvest is great, and many cultured and consecrated laborers are needed. To engage in work of this kind requires a missionary spirit and much sacrifice has to be made.

"The political situation is a matter of absorbing interest. Not for a generation have men felt such a sense of solemn responsibility in view of the grave issues confronting us as a nation. It is a time when men should do their own thinking. It should be in very truth a "campaign of education." The educated men of the country, such constituencies as that to which education appeals, should not be swayed by undue excitement or party clamor. The danger is too real. Patriotism or the general welfare should precede all personal or other considerations. Each man should know where he stands and why he stands there. Men should not keep silent or evade the solemn duty. Men who have studied deeply the great question of finance should enlighten their fellowmen. We should rise to the calm heights of dispassionate investigation. Every man should be determined to master money problem. If this spirit prevails the campaign will be worth far more than it costs and the outcome in November will be the wisest and best. We have full faith in the solid sense, the sober second thought of the voters of this country. We believe that the welfare of the country—not of any one section, East or West, North or South, but the whole country—demands that we make gold the basis of all financial transaction."

EDUCATION.

The reopening of the schools gives the teachers throughout the land a splendid opportunity to train the twenty millions of young people as to what this great financial question is that engages the attention of the people, not only in America, but in foreign countries as well.

How sad it is to say good-bye! So we felt on the morning of the 28th ultimo, when we said goodbye to relatives and friends on leaving the city of Washington to return to Abbeville. In the "we sma" hours of morning we reached Greenville, S. C., and was entertained at the hospitable home of Rev. B. F. McDowell, pastor of the Mattoon Presbyterian Church. On Tuesday, the 29th ultimo, at 10 a. m., we again boarded the train and reached Abbeville at 2 p. m. Having not informed anyone of our coming, we took the people on surprise. As soon as they heard of our arrival they came to the college building and welcomed us to our field of labor. Under such circumstances our hearts was gladdened.

After having spent a pleasant vacation, we are vigorous and strong for the work.

The religious and secular work done in the midst of our people here has produced a set of young people that any city might be proud to own. The young women especially are of a very superior class. Many of whom after having drank from the fount of knowledge right here at their door, have gone into darker places and labored among their less fortunate sisters with excellent results. There are young men who, fifteen years ago were mere boys, are examples of progress. A few are engaged in business enterprises, others are teaching, and some are preaching.

In this letter we shall speak of the business side of their lives. There is nothing more important to the young men than to know how to manage business. In that we are sadly lacking. The professional walks of life are inviting and many are found therein, while that of the artizan is too much neglected. But there are some young men here in Abbeville who are actually engaged in business and who receive the patronage of the whole people. The leading tailor of this city is a young man of the race. This same young man went into partnership with another and established a first-class ice cream saloon, and they have the push and go aheadiness to make it a success. Another, quite a lad, learned the harness making trade about a year ago. Now he has a shop of his own, gets all the work he wants and is prepared to teach other young men. Such boys are walking lights in any community. Encourage them that others may be induced to do likewise. Some of the wealthiest men we know began life as these young men. But by faithfulness to duty, energy and push, have overcome all difficulties. After all, the race needs wealth as well as knowledge. Let us give more attention to both. For they are important factors.

The schools of our beautiful little city reopened the 6th instant. We, together with parents and friends, were glad to hear once more the ringing of the bells which called the children into the school-room. May this be a most pleasant and successful school year to the teachers in the city of Abbeville, is the earnest prayer of the writer.

CATARRH CAN NOT BE CURED

WITH LOCAL APPLICATIONS, as they can not reach the seat of the disease. Catarrh is a blood or constitutional disease, and in order to cure it you must take internal remedies. Hall's Catarrh Cure is taken internally, and acts directly on the blood and mucous surfaces. Hall's Catarrh Cure is not a quack medicine. It was prescribed by one of the best physicians in this country for years, and is a regular prescription. It is composed of the best tonics known, combined with the best blood purifiers, acting directly on the mucous surfaces. The perfect combination of the two ingredients is what produces such wonderful results in curing Catarrh. Send for testimonials, free.
